Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Larry G. Lyngstad began a career in teaching the youth of South Dakota in 1962 after graduating from Southern State Teachers College and, in 1980, was hired by the state of South Dakota Department of Education and Cultural Affairs; and

Whereas, In February, 1988 Larry became the executive director of the South Dakota Real Estate Commission, was installed as president-elect of the Association of Real Estate License Law Officials in 1998, and as their president in 1999, and was then invited to Hong Kong to discuss real estate regulation; and,

Whereas, Larry was appointed to the South Dakota Arts Council, is a board member of the South Dakota Friends of Public Broadcasting; and,

Whereas, Larry will officially retire from his position of executive director of the South Dakota Real Estate Commission on October 8, 2003; and,

Whereas, The state of South Dakota takes pride in Larry's accomplishments in representing South Dakota, and Larry has shown exemplary dedication and loyalty as an employee of the state; and,

Whereas, The state of South Dakota wishes to extend heartfelt congratulations and appreciation to Larry for his devotion to the state and its citizens; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 8, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement.

LARRY G. LYNGSTAD DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
